Free Programs at NRH Public Library Topics include taxes, grants and gardening

Whether you are looking for help with your taxes, a grant application or your garden, you can find the assistance you need at the North Richland Hills Public Library. The Library is offering the following free educational programs for the community in March:

"Preparing to File Your Taxes"

Cathy Johnson and Bette Howell from H & R Block will be hosting a "Preparing to File Your Taxes" program on March 4 at 7 p.m. in the Community Room at the NRH Public Library. They will be discussing changes to the tax code, exemptions that you may use, as well as fielding questions from the audience. Registration is not required.

"Spring in the Garden" Seminar

Start your Spring landscape out right! Spend a Saturday morning with Landscape Horticulturalist Geoff Sherman and other speakers and learn how to prepare for our Texas growing season. Steven Chamblee, Chief Horticulturist with Chandor Gardens, will also talk about one of the horticultural jewels of North Texas. This free seminar will be Saturday, March 6 from 9:00 a.m. to noon in the Community Room.

"Think Like a Grantmaker"

This program explains how a shift in perspective can help you more successfully secure grants for non-profit organizations. Registration is not required. Individuals are invited to bring a lunch to this informal discussion at the NRH Public Library at noon on Wednesday, March 10.

The North Richland Hills Public Library is located at 9015 Grand Avenue. For more information or to schedule and appointment, please call the Reference Desk at 817-427-6814.
